Eat Your Words!

2014 Edible Book Contest

Saturday, April 19th, 2014 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. Spring Hill Branch Library, 9220 Spring Hill Drive

Make and bring an edible creation based on your favorite book! Please bring applications to any branch of the library by April 14th, 2014, or until all available display space has been claimed. For further information, please contact Robin Bravard at 352-754-4043.

Name:
Phone: _
Email:

Categories

- Most Edible
- "Punniest"
- Best depiction of Classic
- "People's Choice

- Best entry based on Fiction book
- Best entry based on Nonfiction book
- Best entry based on Children's or Teen book

2014 Edible Book Contest

Prizes: $5 gift certificates to the Friends of the Library Bookstore.

Schedule:

10:00 – 11:00 a.m. - Set up entries

11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. - Public viewing and judging

12:30 – 1:00 p.m. - Announcement of winners & eating of entries

Entries must be family – friendly!

Please bring your completed edible book entry to the Spring Hill Branch Library, 9220 Spring Hill Drive, on Saturday April 19th, during set-up time of 10 - 11 a.m. (preferably by 10:30 a.m.)

Please bring a copy of the book cover or author photo with you on the day of the event - to best represent your entry. The library will supply a copy of the book, if available.

Refrigeration will not be available.

Please post a list of ingredients next to your entry, as a courtesy to patrons with food allergies.

The library will provide eating utensils.

